

Sustainability in Higher Education Curriculum

Forum Schedule

Host: Gothenburg Centre for Sustainable Development, GMV, at University of Gothenburg and Chalmers.

When: March 28th at 09:00-12:00.

Where: Västra Hamngatan 25, Pedagogen Building A, Room number: AK2134

Time	Activity and speakers
09-09.10:	Welcome and Introduction - Kassahun Weldemariam and Eddi Omrcen, GMV.
09.10-09.30:	Education for sustainable development in Practice: the case of Challenge Lab at Chalmers - John Holmberg, Professor in Physical Resource Theory, UNESCO Chair Holder.
09.30-09.50:	Experience from integrating sustainable development into higher education at GU and UKÄ's national evaluation - Barbro Robertsson, Lecturer Sahlgrenska Academy, University of Gothenburg, and UKÄ evaluation committee.
09.50-10.10:	Sustainability in everyday life - what is the difference between curricula development in an on campus course and a MOOC - Anna Nyström Claesson, Lecturer, Technology Management and Economics, Chalmers.
10.10-10.25:	Discussion on key issues from the three presentations.
10.25-10.40:	Fika
10.40-11.00:	The ACT for Sustainability course at Wageningen University as an example of Responsive, Relevant, Responsible and Reflexive Higher Education - Arjen Wals, professor of Transformative Learning for Socio-Ecological Sustainability at Wageningen University and Guest professor at University of Gothenburg, IDPP and GMV.
11.00-11.20:	"Have you thought about leaving the university? Exploring the role of outdoor learning for sustainability in higher education" - Mattias Sandberg, associate senior lecturer with a PhD in Human geography at University of Gothenburg.
11.20-11.40:	Sustainability in higher education curricula – the natural science way - Johan Boman, professor in Atmospheric science at the department of chemistry and molecular biology, University of Gothenburg. Ingela Bursjö, associate lecturer at Physics at University of Gothenburg, with a PhD in education for sustainable development.
11.40-11.55:	Discussion on key issues from the three presentations.
11.55-12.00:	Plenary Summary and short evaluation.
12.00:	Closing